

In Case of Emergency

The compliance of fire safety rules and regulations is not a formality or a way to avoid penalties and other sanctions it is undoubtedly a vital necessity and duty of all citizens and organizations. Fires occur when people do not take precautionary measures, demonstrate carelessness and negligence with fire. The careless use of fire whiles. Smoking in bed, in prohibited areas, cigarette butts thrown out from the balconies or out the window of the car lead to a big disaster. The statistics shows that careless fire handling is the most common cause of fire, and often results people's death.

The main causes of fires in public and private buildings are: carelessness and negligence in handling with fire, defective electrical outlet, gas leakage, electrical appliances left without supervision and others. In order to prevent fires and explosions, to preserve life and property avoid the storage of flammable and combustible liquids at home. Be careful when using household chemistry items, don't to dump them in the trash, don't spray aerosol on an open fire. Flammable materials cannot be stored in the attics, cellars and subbasements. It is not recommended to install electric heaters next to flammable items. If you smell smoke you must unplug all the electrical appliances immediately.

Be careful and cautious with fire! Take care of you children, home and property from fires. But if the fire had happened, you must immediately call the fire service, clearly answering the questions of the service manager. Sometimes it is impossible to extinguish fire with your own efforts without Special professional equipment such as Toronto fire sprinkler systems that is used to extinguish big fires.

According to statistics the majority of fires occur in the housing (about 40% of the total). First of all it is explained by the fact that, people often contact with the open flame (matches, gas, and furnace) in everyday life. And secondly, there is a huge number of household appliances in modern apartment that can result the fire (electric heaters, TV set etc.). That's why in some housings, fire extinguisher is a mandatory part of the apartment. Every family member should know how to use this special mean of fire protection. Mississauga fire extinguishers will immediately give you a helping hand in the case of emergency.

Deaths of U.S. Firefighters During Training
1977 - 2010

The practice shows that a few people know how to behave in case of fire. And most of the tragedies happened due to the panic and incorrect uncoordinated actions. To avoid tragedy follow these steps: try to extinguish the fire source, if impossible evacuate immediately breathing through soggy fabric. If it is impossible to leave the apartment close the doors tightly and wait for the saving service. We hope that this simple guidance will help you to prevent fire in your house and stay alive if the emergency situation happened. You can share this article with your family members, friends and neighbors to inform them.

This information has been gladly provided by Expertcrownmoulding.ca - the best architectural cornice moulding contractor in Toronto.

Back to Home Page